

Our client, is a global company with a prestigious reputation for its manufacturing of high-quality electrodeposited copper foils for the electronics industry, targeted primarily at laminators and printed circuit board manufacturers.

In accordance with the best available techniques and practices, combined with the experience and know-how of its employees, our client develops, produces and markets high-quality copper foil, while constantly ensuring a safe and healthy environment in our plants, processes and products.

In order to reinforce its activities in Mechanical Maintenance, we are currently looking for their:

Head of mechanical maintenance (Luxemburg based)

Responsibilities:

- In charge of mechanical maintenance with mainly anodes change, turning department and general maintenance (around 30 people)
- Insure maximum availability of the production facilities
- Follow the mandatory controls in conformity with laws
- Identify opportunities to increase production and productivity
- Identify opportunities to save or recover energy
- Work with production owners

Profile:

- Has successfully completed a Master Degree in Mechanical Engineering
- Be fluent in French and English. German will also be an advantage
- Good communication with people at all levels
- Good knowledge in SAP and Microsoft office
- Teamwork spirit
- 10 years experience in an industrial and mechanical environment
- Willing to acquire specific technical knowledge
- Good knowledge in energies : steam, air compressors, boilers, chilled water production systems

Interested by this vibrant challenge? Please send your CV to the attention of Eric Geurts:
eric.geurts@cbp.be